

POSITION: QUANTITATIVE FIELD INTERVIEWERS

LOCATION: NAIROBI COUNTY

The African Population and Health Research Center (APHRC) is a premier research-to-policy institution, generating evidence, strengthening research and related capacity in the African research and development ecosystem, and engaging policy to inform action on health and development. APHRC seeks to drive change by developing strong African research leadership and promoting evidence-informed decision-making (EIDM) across sub-Saharan Africa.

The PROMOTE II randomized control trial is part of the Challenging the Politics of Social Exclusion (CPSE) Project implemented at the African Population and Health Research Center (APHRC). The main objective of this study is to empower adolescent mothers and improve the health and development of them and their children. Additionally, the project also aims to examine the impact of tailored interventions on key outcomes in adolescent sexual reproductive health as well as determine their cost effectiveness.
